RemediumOne
FOR LIFE

Research Team Leader

A community-based research project on dengue control, coordinated by the Faculty of Medicine, University of Kelaniya, requires Research Team Leaders with the qualifications and expertise listed below.

Selected candidates will be provided with the necessary training related to the project and are expected to work in the community setup with community health service providers and medical professionals, to collect data and coordinate the project.

Educational & other requirements

- ❑Bachelor's degree preferably in biology/ sociology/ health promotions related discipline.
- ❑Good organizational skills and strong interpersonal skills.
- ❑Excellent communication (Written & verbal) skills (In both English & Sinhala)
- ❑Ability to effectively deal with study participants & families, medical professionals, government & private authorities and other stakeholders
- ❑ Ability to work in the Gampaha district (Candidates are expected to reside in the research area during their tenure)
- ❑Flexibility to work during extended working hours, weekends & holidays
- ❑Previous work experience in research discipline
- ❑Candidates with valid driving license & Bike would be preferred

Allowance: Attractive monthly allowance will be paid
Contract: Renewable project-basis contract for 01 year

If your profile matches our expectations and if you carry the correct attitude, we are looking forward to take you onboard.

Please send you CVs at your earliest to,

Human Resources Department
RemediumOne (Private) Limited
No : 41/10 , Dr. Premasiri Kemadasa Mw, Colombo 07
hr@remediumone.com