BA IN YOUTH AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

ACADEMIC YEAR 2024 /2025

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL STUDIES

OUSL

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND SOCIAL SCIENCES
THE OPEN UNIVERSITY OF SRI LANKA

Programme Overview

The Bachelor of Arts in Youth and Community Development aims to empower youth work professionals with essential competencies crucial for driving national development initiatives forward. This degree programme addresses a pressing national requirement for trained youth workers during a time of accelerated national development efforts, aimed at mobilizing youth for nation-building. It responds directly to the professional community's call to enhance the professionalization of youth work, aligning it with standards set for Social Work.

Bachelor of Arts in Youth and Community Development

The curriculum integrates mandatory and elective courses from the BA in Social Sciences, the Diploma in Youth Development, and specialized courses developed by the Commonwealth Higher Education Youth Work Consortium.

The programme includes specialized professional training supported by the Professional Youth Workers Association (PYWA).

Each academic year is divided into two semesters, and student assessment involves continuous assessments and final examinations for each course per semester. In Level 5, students are required to complete either an internship or an extended essay.

Upon request, students can attain a Diploma or Higher Diploma in Youth and Community Development after successfully completing Level 3 and Level 4, respectively.

Making Changes to Registered Courses

After registration students are allowed a specific period to modify their registered courses. Changes such as adding or dropping courses can be made within this designated timeframe using a prescribed form available from the Assistant Registrar of the Faculty. For assistance, students may also consult with the Department Coordinator or the Regional Director in their respective areas. Course changes must maintain a credit load ranging from a minimum of 9 credits to a maximum of 30 credits. Modifications to registered courses are not permitted after the designated period ends.

Objectives of the Programme

- Professional Recognition: Provide youth workers with credentials recognized internationally.
- Core Competencies: Equip practitioners with essential competencies, knowledge, values, and skills in Youth and Community Development.
- Engagement in National Development: Facilitate youth involvement in national development through informed policy development, implementation, and evaluation.
- Professional Development: Cultivate highly competent individuals enthusiastic about employment in Youth and Community development fields.
- Qualification: Enable practitioners to obtain a professional education qualification relevant to national development through the Open University of Sri Lanka.
- Youth Engagement: Develop professional youth workers capable of engaging effectively with young people and society.

Academic Activities and Locations

This programme is offered at all Regional Centres. Conducting academic activities at study centers will depend on the number of students registered at the respective Study Center.
